

The EPA has primacy in the state of California. Additional pre-operational testing not required.